Women and Children of Business Men Ordered to Leave the Country--Huerta Defiantly Proceeds to Organize Congress in Face of United States Protests --President Wilson Unruffled Declares Huerta's Elimination Is Inevitable.

BULLETIN

By Associated Press.

Mexico City, Nov. 17.—The report was received today that General Huerta intends to resign on the convening of Congress in regular session here Thursday. It was based on the alleged declaration of a Member of the Chamber of Deputies.

By Associated Press.

Mexico City, November 17.—An early severance of relations between the United States and Mexico regarded here as inevitable. None of the newspapers here printed either in English or Spanish published more than the briefest dispatches today touching the situation and no indication was given in these of the intentions of Washington towards Mexico. Whether the United States Embassy is to remain here or be immediately withdrawn appears to be a matter of which Nelson O'Shaughnessy himself is uncertain. The staff of the Embassy is ready to leave at a moment's notice and little surprise would be felt here, although much alarm would be caused, in case Mr. O'Shaughnessy and his establishment should take the evening train to Vera Cruz. There was considerable gossip in political circles today of further changes in the Mexican cabinet.

General Blanquet, minister of war, is said to have had a misunderstanding with President Huerta, which may cause him to leave his post. General Huerta is proceeding with his efforts to organize the new Congress regardless of notice given to him by John Lind that serious consequences would follow such a step. It was expected today that a further attempt would be made this afternoon to organize the senate as Saturday's efforts failed, owing to a lack of a quorum. The Chamber of Deputies was ordered to hold a session to receive the credentials of its members. Unless the United States finds a means to bring about alteration of the present plans, the first meeting of the House will occur Thursday.

By Associated Press.

Mexico City, Nov. 17.—Many American citizens who have reached here from smaller towns in the interior of Mexico declare that the situation has now reached its most acute stage.

A number of business concerns here, whose headquarters are abroad, very recently cablegrammed instructions to send the women and children of their employees out of the Federal capital. A man arrived here from Vera Cruz last night who claimed to be a messenger from John Lind, with what authority was not known, and who urged the immediate departure of all Americans, men and women and children.

All the Ministers of foreign countries are still here. Admiral Von Kintze, the German Minister, declared today that he believes there is no reason for anxiety. "A plan is being considered," he said, "by which armed intervention will most surely be avoided."

Mr. O'Shaughnessy at 10.30 this morning said he had received no intimation from the Washington government that he was to close the American Embassy here. The American Charge d'Affaires appeared to have abandoned hope of any renewal of negotiations with the Mexican government and he said he simply was awaiting orders.

EXODUS BEGINS

By Associated Press.

Vera Cruz, November 17.—Eight American families arrived here from Mexico City today and reported that a general exodus was beginning. Many more are expected tonight and a still greater number tomorrow.

WILSON SEES NO SPECIAL CHANGE

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 17.—President Wilson does not regard the Mexican situation as having reached any such critical stage as to require the closing of the American Embassy. Discussing reports to that effect today he said that Charge O'Shaughnessy neither had been given his passports nor had been told to come back. While details as to persons had changed, yet the main circumstances remained substantially the same as when the President previously expressed a favorable view of the situation.

Summing up the status of affairs, the President indicated that while the personal attitude of General Huerta might have been changed, the circumstances upon which the American Government bases its convictions that Huerta's elimination is inevitable, have not changed at all. It was made plain at the White House that the resignation of Minister Aldape did not affect materially the American plan, as it was pointed out that no scheme that this Government might have could very well depend on the permanency of any member of the Huerta cabinet.

The President made it plain that the changes in the situation, though they appeared kaleidoscopic in detail had not impaired confidence here in the ultimate solution of the problem by peaceful means. Official denial was made at the White House that Pan-American mediation was contemplated and it was reiterated that no mediation of any kind had been offered to either faction. South American nations, it was stated, had been informed in the same way as European nations and have expressed in the main their desire to support the American policy. Secretary Bryan has ordered investigation of the executions at Juarez, but thus far has been unable to reconcile conflicting reports.

BREAK EXPECTED

Mexico City, Nov. 17.—It was learned on the highest authority that an open break with the United States is expected within 48 hours. Charge O'Shaughnessy is packing his trunks and may close the embassy and leave for Vera Cruz tonight.

EXECUTIONS MADE IN RETALIATION

By Associated Press.

Nogales, Sonora, November 17.—Retaliation for the execution of Constitutional prisoners by Mexican Federals was advanced today as a possible explanation of the action of General Villa at Juarez, in ordering the execution of at least two Federal prisoners yesterday. At General Carranza's headquarters it was denied that specific orders for the Juarez executions had been sent from here, but the same informant thought it possible that General Villa acted under the instruction given several months ago by General Carranza. That order it was stated, had directed that no Federals below a grade of Captain be executed. The negotiations between William B. Hale, agent of the Washington administration, and Carranza were believed here to have reached a crucial stage.

SOME SLAUGHTER

By Associated Press.

El Paso, Texas, November 17.—Eleven men are known to have been executed in Juarez since Francisco Pancho Villa and his rebel forces captured the city Saturday morning. The rebel officials admit the execution of that number. Americans who have frequented the city since its capture claim that 23 have been executed.

RAVING WOMEN ARE SENTENCED

By Associated Press.

London, England, November 17.—Two bands of what Arthur Hopkins, Police Magistrate, described as "raving women," appeared in the police courts of London today. They were charged with assault in connection with Saturday's outrage when hammers were thrown at Judge Lawrence and yesterday's disorder near the official residence of Premier Asquith. The four women charged with assaulting the judge were sentenced to terms of from one to two months at hard labor.

DEPUTY SHERIFF SHOT BY STRIKER

By Associated Press.

Calumet, Mich., November 17.—In a pistol fight between copper mine strikers and deputies at Quincy mine today, Harry Barker, a deputy sheriff, was shot through the abdomen. Two strikers received flesh wounds. The fight started when a parade of strikers on their way to Hancock to meet non-union men going to work. The parade stopped and deputies stationed along the road ordered the strikers to move on.

BROUGHT CHINKS IN FOR $1200 PER

By Associated Press.

Chicago, Ill., November 17.—Detention here of three Chinamen recently smuggled into this country, led to the arrest in Mobile, Alabama, today of two officers of the Norwegian steamship Alm, according to dispatches received here. Two of the Chinamen captured were sent to Mobile and identified the men. They told immigration officials they had paid $1200 each to be brought into the United States.

WANT SUFFRAGE A NATIONAL QUESTION

Also Ask for Special Mention of Their Cause in President's Annual Message to Congress and the Appointment of a Committee—Wilson Declares He Has the Matter Under Consideration.

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., November 17.—65 Suffragettes from New Jersey visited the executive offices at the White House today and though they had no previous engagement, were promptly received by President Wilson. "We came to ask you to make Suffrage a national question," Mrs. E. F. Peckert, head of the delegation, told the President. "And we would like you to include in your annual message support for the constitutional amendment now pending, to grant to women the right to vote. We would like also if you would use your efforts to have the committee on rules in the House appoint a woman's suffrage committee to push consideration of the amendment now pending in the Senate and on which we would like to see an early vote." "I was just talking today," said the President, "with some gentlemen from the House about the appointment of such a committee, and we have the matter under consideration."

MOST LOWER DEATH RATE

By Associated Press.

Charleston, W. Va., Nov. 17.—Governor H. D. Hatfield, aroused by the report of Chief of State Department of Mines Henry, in which it was shown one coal miner was killed each working day in West Virginia, has evolved a plan to lessen mine risks.

The Governor plans to have the mines of the state placed under three classifications; non-hazardous, hazardous and extra-hazardous. It is planned to have mine inspector spend more time in mines known to be hazardous. Operators who provide safeguards for employees will be allowed a lower rate of liability under the workman's compensation act, in case of accident.

CHINESE MAKE DEMONSTRATION

By Associated Press.

Panama, November 17.—The Chinese question assumed a serious turn in the Republic of Panama today. All the Chinese merchants, wholesale and retail in this city, in Colon and points in the interior, numbering more than 1500, acting according to a prearranged plan, closed their places of business, after posting notices that the doors had been shut for the purpose of taking an inventory. The demonstration was an effort to compel the government of Panama to recede from its program relative to the new registration law.

SO. PACIFIC YIELDS STRIKE IS ENDED

By Associated Press.

Houston, Texas, Nov. 17.—The strike of operating employees of the Southern Pacific lines of Texas and Louisiana was ended today when the railroad yielded to the demands of the men to meet a committee of the four unions concerned in the controversy. The men were ordered to resume work immediately.

$12,000,000 FLOOD LOSS IN 10 YEARS

By Associated Press.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 17.—According to a statement issued today by the flood commission appointed by the Pittsburg Chamber of Commerce, the loss from floods in Pittsburg during the past ten years was $12,000,000. The flood area within the city limits is computed at 1540 acres.

FIREMEN'S STRIKE IS THREATENING

By Associated Press.

Lawrence, Mass., Nov. 17.—About 450 union firemen in the textile mills in this city struck today in pursuance to their vote of yesterday to strike unless their demand for an 8-hour working day was granted. Should the strike be continued long, it is believed the mills, employing 35000 operatives, would be forced to close down, owing to the law which prohibits operation of a manufacturing establishment for more than one week without licensed firemen. The firemen have heretofore worked 12 hours a day, seven days a week.

FATALLY HURT

Mother and Daughter Struck at Crossing by Handcar.

Napoleon, O., Nov. 17.—Mrs. George W. Racey, 60, and daughter Mina, 22, were probably fatally injured when crossing the Detroit, Toledo & Ironton railroad track near here. Their buggy was struck by the roadmaster's handcar, following a freight train which had just passed. Mrs. Racey suffered injuries to her spine. A broken rib of Miss Racey penetrated a lung.

URGES REFORMS

Bank Superintendent Lattanner Reports to Governor Cox.

Columbus, O., Nov. 17.—Elimination of the overdraft, prohibition of interlocking boards of directors, greater responsibility on the part of directors for criminal transactions and reclassification of the state banking laws are among the radical changes recommended for legislative action by State Banking Superintendent Lattanner in his annual report, which was presented to Governor Cox today. Superintendent Lattanner would make it a felony for anyone to give a check knowing that he has not adequate funds to meet it.

OUST AUDITOR'S CLERKS

Columbus, O., Nov. 17.—Reduction in clerical allowances to county auditors is recommended in a general letter sent by the Ohio tax commission to every board of county commissioners in the state. Under the new taxation laws all work connected with the listing and assessing of property for taxation and making up the tax duplicate is transferred from the auditor to the local deputy tax commissioners.

TO AVOID RUPTURE WITH MEXICANS

Administration Is Exerting Itself to the Utmost.

HUERTA CONTINUES DEFIANT

Threat to Withdraw the American Embassy at the Mexican Capital Would Cause No Surprise at Washington — Relations With Southern Republic Admitted To Be Most Critical—Latest Developments.

Washington, Nov. 17.—The relations between the United States and the Huerta government in Mexico are more strained than at any time since President Wilson began consideration of the Mexican problem. The administration here is exerting itself to the utmost of its ability to avoid if possible the rupture with the Mexico City government which seems imminent unless Huerta can be broken.

So genuinely critical do administration officials consider the present aspects of the situation that they are unwilling to discuss the Mexican question in any way. Relations between the two governments are admittedly so delicate that efforts were made to discourage all speculation regarding developments in Washington and Mexico City.

Secretary Bryan was at the state department during the day, in communication with his representatives in Mexico. He was likewise in conference with President Wilson. The steps taken by the administration were decided on in the conferences at the White House and in the light of the dispatches received at the department of state. Messages were received from John Lind at Vera Cruz, Nelson O'Shaughnessy at Mexico City and William B. Hale at the Carranza headquarters at Nogales.

There is good reason to believe that an attempt will be made by President Wilson to force Huerta out by threats of a rupture. On this account instructions to O'Shaughnessy to notify President Huerta that if the congress is not dissolved and himself out of the presidency within a brief period, he will withdraw the American embassy from the Mexican capital, would occasion no surprise here. Race Segregation in Public Office Causes Investigation

By Associated Press.

New York, Nov. 17.—The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People today made public the report of a special agent sent to Washington to investigate the segregation of white and colored employees in government departments. The investigation was made as the result of many complaints and inquiries. The association has twenty branches throughout the country. Moorefield Storey, of Boston, is president; Oswald G. Villard, of New York is chairman of the board of directors which includes, among others, Miss Jane Addams and Miss Lillian D. Wald.

"The effect of segregation," says the report, "is startling. Competition has been eliminated. Those segregated are regarded almost as lepers and get what no one else wants. Segregation in work has been so far without official orders. Generally the excuse is a readjustment of work to increase efficiency."

Taking up individual departments, the report says:

"In the Miscellaneous and Engraving Division of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, workers have been paired according to race. In the Dead Letter Office of the Post Office Department, colored employees have been segregated back of a row of lockers in a corner of the room. In fact, in this department, segregation practically amounts to elimination. In the Treasury building colored clerks have not yet been segregated, but it seems to be understood that as many as possible are to be segregated in the Registry Division.

"In the office of the Auditor for the Post office segregation seems to have been most skilfully worked out. In one room colored men operate what is known as the 'gang punch' and in another room, the force working at the 'assorting machines' is entirely colored.

"In the Bureau of Engraving and Printing the lunch room assigned to the colored women is unsanitary. In the Post Office Department there is no lunch room at all for colored help. In the office of the Auditor for the

BRIDGE AND ROAD WORK IN CROSS

The work of putting the new block floor in the Main street river bridge will begin in about a week or ten days and the contractor is of the opinion that it will take two or three weeks to complete the same. A notice will be posted on the bridge about a week prior to the bridge being closed so that people in this locality will have an opportunity to do any immediate heavy hauling.

While the bridge is closed traffic will be turned around the road to Kilgore bridge at Geo. Miller's place, and around the Narrows Road and in Bridge street. The Narrows Road, which was badly damaged by the flood, is being repaired some so traffic will be possible over it.

The new mile of paved road on the Clarksburg pike, the brick for which was condemned, will necessarily have to be closed for the winter. The curbing that has been set has been bermed and traffic will be again opened up over the old roadbed, instead of the canal bank.

The North Fork bridge, in Scioto township, has been started and a new steel structure will soon be in place of the old wooden structure. The county has offered the old bridge lumber and timbers for sale, but so far has received no bid on the same.

The new bridge at Bainbridge will be completed within about a week or ten days. The same is a two span steel bridge with block flooring and meets with the approval of the entire community.

The new steel bridge at West Junction has also been shipped and reached the site, but work on the same has not yet commenced.—Chillicothe News.

Having the Punch

This is essentially a day and a time when the successful man and the successful business must "have the punch."

It has only been in recent years that the phrase "have the punch" has been used in connection with any other business or profession, if you please, than that of prize fighting. The favorite expression used by the old-time followers of pugilism in describing the successful fighter was "he had the punch." The boxer or the fighter to climb from the obscurity of a participant in the preliminary matches must "have the punch."

During the last decade people having been compelled to go at such a rapid pace to keep up with the demands of the present day life that nothing more fitly describes that essential to success in almost every walk of life in these times than the old prize ring phrase.

People haven't the time nor the inclination these days to read long accounts of important happenings—there are too many things happening and too much to read about. They haven't time to figure out the hidden purpose in magazine or newspaper articles. They demand "the punch" and the news-writers are all instructed nowadays to handle only that matter which can be presented to the public with a punch. Matter which does not possess the punch is not worth while and is given no place on the crowded wires.

The political orator who dealt in words, in phrase, nicely rounded sentences and "glittering generalities" has passed off the stage. The political speaker these days must have something definite to say, know how to say it and deliver his message with the demanded punch or he does his cause harm. If he hasn't the punch he is a failure.

The attorney and the advocate these days, whether addressing court or jury casts aside all attempts at oratory and goes straight to the root of the case. In short, terse sentences, if he is a success, he presents his facts very like the old time prize fighter drove his jolts and swings to the body of his opponent. He too, must have the punch.

The merchant in his advertisements must make his story short and attractive if he expects buyers to come. He must have the punch in his business and in his advertising.

The rapid development of the country, the growth of business and the consequent increase in competition in all professions and businesses has made the man who drifts to success without especial effort on his own part, an impossibility nowadays.

Circumstances no longer make a man. He must shape circumstances to meet his own ends. The contest of wits and energies is so real and so marked that it is really a fight for existence.

Why then, is not the old phrase of fight followers really applicable now as descriptive of the qualities which the champions in business must possess.

Judging from the general use which is made of the old phrase which the followers of the squared circle game coined, the majority of people think it about fits existing condition.

If men who feel themselves "going back" just a little would go into training and find out whether they still possess the punch they might, some of them, with profit to themselves, quit drifting and worrying, and either sell out and retire or develop the necessary punch.

There Never Was a
Time That the Stage
Was Better
Than It Is Today

By BRANDER MATTHEWS, Academic Critic and Student of the Drama

JUST at present we hear some talk about the DECADENCE OF THE DRAMA, some opinion expressed that the drama is as bad as it can be. But these views are voiced, I think, largely by those who FAIL TO CONSIDER THE STAGE AS A WHOLE and really fix their attention on one or two plays unwisely exploited.

THERE CAN BE NO QUESTION THAT THE STAGE TODAY IS FAR BETTER THAN AT ANY PREVIOUS PERIOD, CERTAINLY OF THE UNITED STATES.

Fifty years ago the drama of the English language was simply contemptible. There was at that time a sharp division between literature and the drama. So bad were conditions then that respectable people were DRIVEN AWAY FROM THE THEATER except when they went to see a great actor—Booth, Kean, Cushman, for example. In those days respectable and discriminating people never went to the theater to see pictures of contemporary life, for such pictures were not to be found on the stage. For pictures true to contemporary life people read novels.

What is particularly hopeful about the playwrights of today is that they are not trying to be literary. They are TRYING TO BE INTERESTING, and most of them are trying to be TRUTHFUL. By "literary truth" I do not mean portrayal of the external facts of life, but fidelity to the inner life, and it is this inner life that the younger men are trying to get. Personally I think the drama will be MORE IMPORTANT THAN PROSE FICTION during the next twenty-five years.

Poetry For Today

OLD BREAKFAST JOYS.

How dear to my heart are the fond recollections
Of breakfasts I ate as a boy!—
The buskewheat, the sirup, the home-ly confections
That my childish tastes would employ;
The coffee, with sugar and cream served so sweetly,
The rich flavored strawberry jam,
And the eggs, white and golden, all spread out so neatly,
Beside of the freshly sliced ham.

No breakfasts have ever been quite like the old ones
I ate as a boy on the farm—
A stranger, I've sat where the cakes have been cold ones,
The jam to be viewed with alarm.
Were I real poet I'd tune up my measures
So sing of those comforts long past;
To give rhythmic sway to the mem'ry of pleasures
Too dear and too perfect to last.

Yet, why stir regret with so much as a chirrup
For blessings we must henceforth lack?
Those buckwheats are vanished, the old maple sirup
Is sweetness that will not come back;
While the ham that of old was a morsel to cherish,
For which e'en a princeling might beg,
Would afford us a joy all too quickly to perish
Allied with the seven-cent egg!

SECRET DONOR

Cornell University Medical School Receives More Than Four Millions.

Ithaca, N. Y., Nov. 17.—An anonymous gift of $4,350,000 to the Cornell university medical school in New York city was announced by President Jacob Gould Schurman of Cornell university. Dr. Schurman said he was not at liberty to disclose the name of the donor. On account of his magnificent generosity to the Cornell medical school in the past, however, it is generally believed that the man who made this gift to the medical school is Colonel Iver Payne of New York city. The gift was actually made to President Schurman in New York city last Friday. The sum will insure the medical school a yearly income of about $200,000. None of the money is to be used for buildings, but will be devoted to paying the annual running expenses of the college.

He leased a plot of ground on 33rd street, opposite the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, for 80 years, at a rental of $121,250 a year, the total rent that the estate will receive from the transaction thus approximating $10,000,000.

Investments by the U. S. for labor and money in the Panama Canal would have been placed to greater service to the American people if it had been expended on the roads of the Republic, is the sense of the National Grange now in convention at Manchester, N. H. The building of the canal is a federal project of which all Americans are proud, yet the same amount of labor and money spent on the highways at home would create benefits nearer and more important to all the people. Employment of state prisoners in preparing road material and also in the actual construction work was advocated whenever possible.

The use of oil as a binder on roads that are traveled by motor vehicles is more and more prevalent in the East, for it really serves its purpose, says a report of the Massachusetts Highway Commission. This report shows pictures of highways treated by bituminous binder and many months after its application, and it still appears in perfect condition. Macadam that is not treated in this way goes to pieces very fast. A piece of road built in the fall of 1911 had to be repaired at a cost of $1400 a mile by July of the next year. The oil treatment costs all the way from $500 to $1200 a mile.

The Pennsylvania and other leading railroads have given notice that the custom of charging but half rates for coal to hospital and charitable organizations will be discontinued. The change is made in order to meet the requirements of new laws.

About 17,000,000 cold storage eggs in Pittsburg and millions in other Pennsylvania cities, must be placed in markets within a few days, according to the new storage act. Storage eggs must be stamped such, causing them to sell down to 14 cents below market for strictly fresh. Many merchants have already been indicted for not complying with the new law. With Siberian and New Zealand creamery butter offered to Pittsburg dealers at 23 cents a pound net, delivered, beginning January 1st and notice to storage interests that all April eggs must come out of storage, the market for storage products is demoralized.

It is the hope and desire of the postmaster general that the 20 pound provision in the rates in the first two parcel post zones, might be extended so as to cover all the zones and that the weight of the package might gradually be brought up to 100 pounds. The system will be expanded and rates lowered, zones expanded and weights of parcels increased just as rapidly as business done will justify. It is thus for the people, patrons of the parcel post, to determine by their use of this government project, how soon these changes are to be brought about. The parcel post has thus far, more than paid its way.

There are minerals of every known color. Ninety distinct minerals occur at the famous zinc mines at Franklin, New Jersey. Magnet Cove Ark., is the only source of the mineral known as arkanisite. A GLIMPSE BACK THROUGH YEARS

(John E. M. Kerr.)

June 20, 1872.

Dr. Jos. Wilson has sold his property on Fayette street, running from the alley adjoining John Mizer's blacksmith shop to Goldsberry's building, to a company of gentlemen, who have already commenced preparations for putting up a row of building houses on the ground. Messrs. Lenox Campbell, Milan Burke, Duffee & Sons and King & Updegrave, compose the company. Price paid, $5000.

A hatchet fell from the top of Mr. Ely's new building last Thursday and struck Mr. Billy Rice in the back, making a pretty bad wound and disabling him for a while.

Mr. Josiah Hopkins, living a short distance from town on the Circleville pike, owns a cow that gave birth to 3 calves, last week, all of which are alive and doing well.

Eds. Herald:—I have this morn'g arrived at the beautiful Mastodon Grove Farm of U. S. Vincent, near New Holland, noted as the place where recently, when ditching, was found the huge monster pioneer mastodon. The largest tooth when taken from the jaw weighed three and half pounds. Mr. Vincent has already exhumed a part of the skull and the tusk, which measures 16 inches in circumference. Mr. Vincent will exhibit all the parts at the great 4th of July Pioneer Meeting. It will also be shown at all the fairs in the country this fall.

INSANE MOTHER COMMITS MURDER

BREAKS THE NECKS OF HER TWO BOYS

Distracted Mother, Pinched By Poverty, Attempts Suicide.

Johnstown, Pa., Nov. 17.—Suspended by a belt from a nail in the home of her father, Mrs. Amelia Banks was cut down in time to save her life. On a bed lay the bodies of her two sons, aged 3 and 4 years, each with his neck broken. Mrs. Banks, after being revived, was lodged in the Cambria county jail, charged with murder. Recently the woman underwent an operation. She wrote to her husband in Bisbee, Ariz., telling her need of money. There was no response. Mrs. Banks wrote a second time, telling her husband that if no money was received within 10 days she would kill their two children and herself.

Hartman Theater

Attraction, Week of November 24th

The Stratford-upon-Avon Players, with their leader, Mr. F. R. Benson, now making their first American tour come to the Hartman Theater, Columbus, for Thanksgiving week, opening Monday, November 24th, and playing matinees Wednesday, Thanksgiving and Saturday. They will give nine of Shakespeare's plays some of the plays that have not been seen in Columbus for years, because they have not suited the personalities of the stars who "go in" for Shakespeare today. This American tour has been widely discussed and much heralded, and in many respects it is the most eventful Shakespearean tour ever undertaken by an English organization.

This company is from the Memorial Theatre at Stratford-upon-Avon, the town of Shakespeare's birth and Mr. Benson has been the director of that theatre for more than twenty-five years and it has become one of the most talked of institutions in England—and is visited by thousands of foreign travelers every season. Practically all the famous actors and actresses in England have been members of this company.

The repertoire for Columbus is as follows: Monday, "The Merchant of Venice;" Tuesday, "King Richard the Second;" Wednesday matinee, "Much Ado About Nothing;" Wednesday evening, "The Taming of the Shrew;" Thanksgiving matinee, "Twelfth Night;" Thanksgiving night "King Henry the Fourth;" Friday evening "The Merry Wives of Windsor;" Saturday matinee, "As You Like It;" Saturday evening, "Hamlet."

The prices will be 25c to $1.50 for evenings and 25c to $1.00 for matinees.

which resulted in the arrest of Gus Smith, of northern Fayette, on a charge of intoxication and wielding a knife with intent to wound, and the young man's trial will take place in police court Wednesday of this week.

Smith, it seems, had come to this city early Saturday morning, and in company with some companions, went to Columbus, and upon his return here in the evening, was under the influence of liquor.

He appeared at the skating rink where Manager Nelson, in response to complaints made regarding the young man's conduct, ordered him from the place and closed the rear door, but by the time he reached the front part of the building, Smith is said to have appeared there, armed with a knife, with which he threatened use on Manager Nelson, and made at him.

Nelson backed into the office in search of a weapon with which to defend himself. The approach of the police caused the young man to resist and leave the place, and he was arrested shortly afterward and escorted to the Mayor's office, where he was searched, and from thence he was taken to the county jail, making no resistance until he was inside the corridor and beheld the jail door open to receive him.

It was then he started to resist but was hurriedly locked up. Then the work of placing him in a cell and locking him in was taken up, but the man commenced struggling and for nearly 30 minutes Chief McCoy and Sheriff Nelson worked to lock him in the cell.

Smith fought and scratched and tried to bite the officers, holding to the bars of the cell and doing everything in his power to prevent them from locking him in a cell.

Officers Bell and Baughn were summoned, and with their assistance he was finally landed in the cell, cursing and shouting at the officers. It was with difficulty that the officers restrained themselves from using more drastic means for conquering the man.

Sunday morning friends came to his rescue and furnished cash bail for his appearance Wednesday.

I. O. O. F. HONORED IN SPECIAL SERVICES

The I. O. O. F. and Daughters of Rebekah were guests of honor at the Presbyterian church Sunday night, when special services in compliment to the order were held.

A hundred and fifty Odd Fellows and Daughters marched into the church and were seated in a body in the center of the auditorium.

Rev. Wm. Boynton Gage delivered a masterly sermon to the order, laying stress upon the possibilities for good in its great numbers and making a strong arraignment of the lack of fidelity to lodge pledges as is often found in different lodges.

The sterling principles of the lodge, its splendid charity and brotherhood, when fulfilled as in its pledges, was extolled with fervid eloquence.

The choir furnished special music, under the direction of Mrs. Robinson, choirster, Mrs. Davis organist. Mr. L. L. Bowman, whose rarely beautiful baritone is a decided acquisition to Washington's musical circles, sang the anthem solos.

New Telephone Exchange With Underground Wires

This is What Many See in Special Meeting of Council Called to Consider Permit to Give the Washington Home Telephone Company Right to Place Conduit in Alley Near Exchange and for a General Permit to Lay Conduits.

A special session of the City Council has been called for tonight for the purpose of granting the Washington Home Telephone company a permit to lay a conduit in the alley near the exchange, and a franchise will probably be asked of council to lay conduits throughout the business part of the city, or wherever conditions warrant it.

Many view this move as one toward the installation of a new exchange in this city, and bringing the antiquated equipment of the company up to a standard of efficiency never before attempted by the company in this city.

Those closely associated with the company state that a new system here is not improbable, but also state that so far nothing definite has been promised, although something definite may develop within a short time.

It is stated that while a permit is asked for laying the half square of conduit, that a general permit will be asked for, which amounts to a franchise for using the streets and alleys for placing the wires underground, thus ridding the business part of town of the unsightly poles and wires.

JONES SCHOOL OF TELEGRAPHY

Friends in this city have received copies of a new catalogue just issued by the Jones School of Telegraphy, of Chicago, of which Mr. Frank S. Jones son of Mrs. Anna S. Jones of this city, is president. The catalogue is exceptionally neat and indicates a very prosperous condition in the school.

Mr. Jones spent his boyhood days in this city, and is known to the most of our citizens who have watched his success with great pleasure.

Mr. Jones long ago took his position in the first rank of telegraph operators, and has forged ahead until he is now at the head of a great school of telegraphy and the official instructor for the Western Union Telegraph company, and enjoys the full co-operation of this great concern. He also has the full support of the Illinois Central railway and unqualified endorsements from the officials of many other railroads. Through these connections Mr. Jones is enabled to place his qualified students in permanent paying positions, and he claims that in this he has never failed.

MISS FLORENCE USTICK, SOCIETY EDITOR

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Barrere Monday afternoon, when their only daughter, Alma, was united in marriage to Mr. Frederick E. Steenrod, of Detroit, Mich.

The wedding was a quiet affair, only the immediate friends of the family being present to witness the impressive ring ceremony performed by Rev. F. E. Ross, of Grace M. E. church.

The attractive bride was stunning in a grey traveling suit, with hat of grey velvet and melrose plumes, corsage bouquet of American beauty roses.

The rooms were artistically embellished with American Beauty roses, palms and greenery.

The young couple left immediately for their new home in Detroit, Mich., where Mr. Steenrod is actively engaged in business.

The bride, a charming girl, has a host of friends in Washington who sincerely regret to lose her, but are extending all good wishes for future success and happiness to the young couple.

Mr. Ben Barrere and family of Wilmington were here to attend the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Barrere entertained at noon with a family dinner.

Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Snyder are anticipating their departure for Florida on the 25th of this month by entertaining with two elaborate dinners at the Boyd home on East street.

Both affairs were greatly enjoyed.

A most delightful affair of Monday was a one o'clock rabbit luncheon at which Mrs. George Bryant entertained 12 guests.

The table was beautifully decorated with rose chrysanthemums and greenery and the luncheon menu delicious with the game course particularly appetizing.

The guests were indebted to Mr. Bryant's skill with the rifle on a recent hunting trip in the Sulphur Lick vicinity for the game. Mr. Bryant has quite a reputation as a nimrod.

Mrs. Howard Griffiths pleasantly entertained the Monday Bridge club this afternoon.

Mrs. Ashley Wood and daughter, Miss Clara, entertained Sunday with an elegant dinner. Covers were laid for twelve. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Beatty, of Selden; Mr. and Mrs. George Moore, daughter, Miss Edith; Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Kellough, son Harold; Miss Emma Swartz and Mr. Earl Groves, of Greenfield.

Mrs. Mary Nolan is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Ad Burnett, in Columbus.

Mrs. Mary Kennedy, of Cincinnati, is the guest of Miss Gertrude Channel and mother, of Columbus avenue.

Miss Hazel Jacobs, of Parretts, spent Sunday the guest of Miss Maude Mitchel, near Jeffersonville. Miss Florence Jacobs was Miss Maude Erick's guest.

Mrs. H. H. Whelpley and little granddaughter, Janet Whelpley returned Saturday night from a visit of some weeks with Mrs. Katharine Bidwell, in Springfield, Ill. Enroute home they visited Mr. Stoddard Hamilton and wife in Indianapolis, Ind. and also friends in Dayton.

Dr. E. M. Boggess, of Mt. Oreb, visited relatives here over Sunday.

Mrs. C. C. Hazard is entertaining her mother, Mrs. C. B. Pidgeon, and sister, Miss Charlotte, of Centerville.

Mr. Elmer Junk is a business visitor from Xenia today.

Mr. Frank Smith has moved into the Mrs. J. L. Judy property on East Market street. Mrs. Judy accompanied her daughter, Mrs. Dick Thompson and husband, to the Smith farm, formerly operated by Mr. George Wolfe.

Mr. Parrett prefers Ohio to the West and is enroute to Cleveland to re-engage with the Glidden Varnish Co. of that city. Mr. Parrett was formerly their New York manager, but will be connected with the home office in Cleveland after the first of the year.

Paul Craig was a week-end visitor in Columbus, the guest of Judge Rathmell and family.

Miss Esther Durant, of Tarleton, visited her brother, Mr. John Durant and family, over Sunday.

Now a feller on the outside has an idea that a Y. M. C. The Y. M. C. A. is a pretty big thing. Over $100,000,000 of property in the U. S., about a million members, and over 3000 men employed running this business. Every place that has a Y. M. C. A. must have members, and then the members hold a meeting and elect the men who act as trustees. The trustees in turn organize and elect a president, vice president, secretary and treasurer, and then the president appoints a bunch of committees, which are members of course, to look after the social, physical, educational, religious and boys' work. Now there is the women's committee, they are appointed by the president, and each one of these committees has to do certain stunts. I was slow in "getting in" on, but do you catch the idea—getting that bunch to work; my goodness! almost a hundred working, for what, to help the other fellows and just such chaps as me and they're really workin' on me and helping me I know, for I'm beginning to feel like nothing, and that's a good sign.

Well sir, there is some business about that institution too. It cost about $6000 to run the place last year. I says what do you fellows spend all that money for. Well, says the secretary, look here, salaries, laundry, for heat, light and water alone, $1000; then supplies, printing, furniture and repairs, etc. And do you know, when I went over everything, I was surprised how they could do so much for so little. Then I says, now about your receipts. Well says he, we received $3,435.95 from membership fees last year, $1,212.99 from rents of bed rooms, then some from the various departments, from the High school for use of class rooms, some from subscriptions, and to make ends meet it was necessary to borrow a little. Well I discovered all anybody was a-gettin' out of running the place was a bunch of worry to make ends meet.

I saw a book there in the office which tells the number attending this thing and that thing, and it said "statistical report." That tells what has been done, that they can get figures for. I'm going to look that thru and tell you what I saw, but I know they can't make a record of the good they've done me, and they can't make a record of cheering a lost soul or makin' a new man out of a run-down plug, but they have some figures we want to see.

Yours,

"JIM".

UNCLE SAM BEGINS A SWEEPING PROBE

Practices of Anthracite Roads
To Get An Airing.

LAW VIOLATIONS SUSPECTED

Interstate Commerce Commission to Determine Whether Railroads Have Observed the Spirit of the Commodities Clause Decision, Which Held That Roads Could Not Transport Goods Produced by Themselves.

Philadelphia, Nov. 17.—The interstate commerce commission began here today a sweeping investigation into the rates and practices of the anthracite roads.

The inquiry is being undertaken with a view to determining whether there have been any violations by the carriers of the interstate commerce laws in connection with the transportation of coal, including the question as to whether the roads have observed the spirit of the recent "commodities clause" decision, which held that railroads could not transport commodities produced by themselves—in this case coal.

The question of the reasonableness of the present freight rates on coal and whether the carriers discriminate against independent shippers will comprise an important part of the inquiry. This will involve an investigation into the relations between the roads and whether, in connection with possible discriminations, any concerted policy exists among them.

Among the railroads chiefly concerned are the Reading; the Central Railroad of New Jersey; the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western; the Lehigh Valley; the Pennsylvania; the Erie, and the New York, Ontario & Western. For the last few weeks investigators for the commission have been engaged in examining the records and correspondence of these roads, and a mass of evidence of this nature will be introduced. High officials of the roads have been called to testify as well as officials of independent coal companies. The inquiry is expected to last at least three weeks.

Commissioner John H. Marble will preside, and S. H. Smith and J. J. Hickey, attorneys for the commission, will conduct the examination.

The railroads will be represented by a legal committee consisting of Walker D. Hines of New York, a prominent railroad lawyer; Jackson E. Reynolds, attorney for the Central Railroad of New Jersey; and Herbert A. Taylor of the Erie.

The program of the investigation calls for an inquiry first into the practices of the roads and their allied coal companies in the production, shipment and sale of coal, and then into rates. Stock control of selling and producing companies by the carriers or by interests which control the carriers will be thoroughly gone into, it is expected, with a view to determining whether these alliances are subversive of the spirit of the commodities clause decision.

Progressive Bills Launched.
The Progressive anti-trust program, the main feature of the third party's legislative plans for the next session, is outlined in three bills which Representative Murdock of Kansas, Progressive leader of the house, introduced in congress today. They embody proposals to create an interstate trade commission to prohibit unfair competition and to suppress monopolies.

Mr. Murdock said that his bills, which he called the Progressive trust triplets, would solve the whole trust problem, would wipe out monopoly and create a trade commission that would relieve the courts of administrative function in business regulations and bring quick, adequate relief to the small business man.

The proposed commission would have seven members serving seven-year terms at $10,000 a year each. The commission's jurisdiction would be limited to corporations and business combinations having more than $3,000,000 gross annual receipts from business in the United States. It would have plenary power to get complete information, to criticize and make public overcapitalization, unfair competition, misrepresentation or oppressive use of credits and to assist the courts in enforcing decrees of dissolution.

Additional Information For Hunters and Trappers

The following information is issued by the State Fish and Game Commission, for the benefit of all who hunt or trap:

The use of a dog is not prohibited in hunting rabbits. In fact these animals may be hunted at any time, except Sundays, and in almost any manner, if the trespass laws are observed and neither a gun nor ferret are connected with such operations.

The words, "With Gun Only" appearing on the back of hunters' licenses, is merely intended to emphasize the fact that rabbits may be killed with a gun during the open season, November 15th to December 4th. A dog may be used while hunting with a gun.

A license is not required in trapping for fur bearing animals if a gun is not associated with the work. The law provides that hunters must have written permission from the owners of premises before entering thereon for the purpose of hunting. However, it is not probable that prosecution would follow if the land owner should state that the hunting was being done with his verbal permission or invitation, and if all other laws relating to hunting were being fully observed.

Land owners and persons having their permission may kill certain fur bearing animals when they are found injuring property. Pelts of animals killed under authority of this law may be had in possession and sold, except in the case of skunks. It should be kept in mind, however, that this law was designed for the sole purpose of enabling land owners to protect themselves against such animals when they are actually injuring property.

President Wilson Confers With Leaders in Congress.

NEWLANDS TO HAVE CHARGE

Latter Favors Appointment of a Trade Commission of Three With Powers Over Corporations Engaged in Interstate Commerce — Cummins and LaFollette Also to Introduce Measures Bearing On Trust Question.

Washington, Nov. 17.—With tariff legislation accomplished and the currency bill in a fair way to become a law before March next, President Wilson is giving considerable thought to the third number in his legislative program—the trust question. The president already has conferred with several leaders in congress, who will have charge of this legislation.

Senator Newlands of Nevada, chairman of the interstate commerce commission of the senate, will have charge of trust legislation in the senate. A number of bills are pending before the committee at this time. Mr. Newlands already has drawn a bill expressing his individual ideas, which authorizes the appointment of a trade commission of three, with powers over corporations engaged in interstate commerce, similar to the powers now exercised by the interstate commerce commission over transportation.

Senators and representatives who have talked to the president say they have found him in a receptive mood, but disposed to hold up the New Jersey anti-trust laws, known colloquially as "the seven sisters," as models of federal legislation.

Senator Cummins also has prepared a bill which amends the Sherman anti-trust law and provides for a trade commission. Senator LaFollette, too, has a bill which makes no mention of a trade commission, but proposes several additional sections to the Sherman act. Senators Bristow and Williams also have bills pending before the senate committee on interstate commerce.

It is likely that the anti-trust legislation of the administration will take the same course the tariff and currency have taken. It is expected that the president will deal with the subject in his annual message to congress early in December and that his recommendations will embrace the underlying ideas of the New Jersey statutes regulating trusts that were passed in his administration as governor.

JEFFERSON TOWNSHIP YOUTH HEADS FAYETTE CONTESTANTS

Willard Kirk Leads Fayette Corn Boys With 111.8 Bushels Grown Upon One Acre.

ANOTHER LAD GROWS 102.8 BUSHEL TO ACRE

Others Follow Closely With More Than 95 Bushels and a Few Have Not Filed Report of Their Acre of Corn—Some Suffer Bad Luck and Fall Short of Goal, While One Lad Made a Mistake in Measuring His "Acre" of Corn.

A large number of the Fayette county corn boys have filed their reports of the amount of corn raised in the Free Trip to Washington contest, which is conducted under the auspices of the State Agricultural board of which Mr. A. P. Sandles is president.

The reports so far indicate that Willard Kirk, from Jefferson township, is ahead by several bushels in this county, and that he will hustle many others throughout the state to beat his record of 111.8 bushels raised upon one acre in Fayette county.

Judges were appointed to husk and weigh the corn and certify to the correct weight of the corn grown by the hustling young farmers.

Another Jefferson township lad is second in the contest in this county, Howard C. Vannorsdall, growing 102.8 bushels upon one acre, and followed closely by Warner M. Straley, of the same township, who raised 97.7 bushels.

Others in that township and the amount grown are: Carl E. Miller, 97.5; Harry L. Helronimus, 96.6 bushels; Russell L. Cook, 94.3 bushels; Otis Straley, 91.7 bushels; Harold Zimmerman, 89.9 bushels; Willie Torbett, 78.9 bushels.

Reports from other townships show the following amount of corn raised by the various contestants: Harold Barnes, Paint township, 87.6 bushels; Albert Burris, Concord township, 80.4 bushels; Owen B. Riley, Union township, 81.4 bushels; Edwin Bowyer, Concord township, 71.9 bushels; Otis Stuckey, Union township, 62.7 bushels; Jennings Bland, Paint twp., 47.5 bushels.

A few other reports are expected within the next day or two, but none are expected that will exceed the hustling youngsters from Jefferson township.

Several of the lads entered in the contest suffered bad luck with their sample acres, the dry weather affecting many plots, while hail storms, wind storms, and heavy rain damaged that of others.

One lad, Harold Zimmerman, discovered that he had made a mistake in the measuring of his acre of ground, and that instead of a full acre he was short enough ground to bring the yield up considerably more than the 80.9 bushels grown by him.

Out of the large number of contestants, several will be sent to Washington when the Corn Boys' Special train leaves in December. One free trip was offered by Congressman J. D. Post, for the largest amount grown in the district; one has been offered by the Washington Savings bank for the best yield in Fayette county, and several township prizes have been offered.

One Pickaway county lad, Dwight Reitor, has produced 117.846 bushels, and so far is ahead in this congressional district, and may win the trip offered by Mr. Post.

Indications are that the number who will take part in the contest next year will be double the number entered in the contest this year, and it is believed that plans will be made for sending more of the enterprising youngsters and farm girls.

NEW CROSSOVER IS LAID TODAY

"RUSSELLISM AND THE MILLENIAL DAWN"

Rev. F. E. Ross, pastor of Grace church, interested a large audience last night in a masterly lecture on "Russellism and the Millennial Dawn" which was the third of a series of fine lectures on the general theme of "What Do You Believe?"

Rev. Ross remarks received the closest attention for nearly an hour and a half and showed a very comprehensive study of the subject.

On next Sunday night Rev. Ross will lecture upon "Christian Science, Its Truth and Error," at which time a very large congregation is expected to be in attendance. Great interest has been shown in these able lectures by Rev. Ross and he has handled all of the subjects in a most interesting and convincing way. The culmination will come on Sunday night, November 30, when Rev. Ross addresses the congregation on the weighty subject, "Do We Need a New Religion?"

ACCUSES HUSBAND OF EXTREME CRUELTY

In a petition for divorce, filed in Probate court through Attorney J. T. Oatmeal, Margaret Johnson asks divorce and alimony from Claude Johnson.

The couple, according to the petition were married in this city on the 4th day of January, 1907.

The plaintiff charges her husband with extreme cruelty, alleging that he has cursed and abused her, and on October 21, 1913, struck her repeatedly, knocking her down and injuring her. She also charges him with tearing her clothes and breaking a sewing machine to pieces.

Divorce, alimony and an injunction prohibiting the defendant from interfering with her, is what the petitioner asks.

BOY TELLS OF LOCAL ROBBERY

Chief McCoy has received word from Cincinnati stating that a boy held for investigation had confessed that he was with a crook who had entered a local dental office in this city a few months ago, and got away with a quantity of gold.

Chief McCoy communicated with the Cincinnati authorities, stating that the office of Dr. C. W. Soddors was burglarized in this city last July and the man will probably be apprehended.

MANY FREIGHTS HANDLE BUSINESS

The D. T. & I. railroad is handling more business than at any time for months, and from Sunday noon until Monday noon eleven through freights had passed through this city.

The increase in business is due in part to more motive power for handling the trains.

Prospects for a continuance of the increased business are bright.

PIONEER DEAD

Mrs. Levina E. Fiechthorn, one of the pioneer residents of Jamestown, died suddenly at her home in that town recently, at the age of 83 years.

Funeral services were held at the residence in Jamestown Monday afternoon and interment made in the Jamestown cemetery.

She leaves a number of relatives in this county.

SECRETLY MARRIED

Friends and relatives are learning with much surprise that Mrs. Ollie Blackburn and Mr. Ed Wilt, the bridge contractor, were secretly married in Newport, Ky., on June 17th.

The secret of the wedding has just leaked out and Mr. and Mrs. Wilt are receiving the best wishes of their friends. They will go at once to housekeeping on Eas Tempie street.

WOMEN MEET TONIGHT

The women who expect to be members of the new physical culture class will meet tonight at 8 o'clock. The meeting will be in the Y. M. C. A. class rooms. The new high school gymnasium will probably be used by the new class.

FOR INTOXICATION

Chas. Hecker, a bricklayer, was picked up by the police Sunday night, and locked in the county jail to answer to a charge of intoxication.

NEW RESERVOIR NEARLY COMPLETED

Within a short time the big reservoir at the Washington water works will be ready for use, as the structure is virtually completed and the work of laying the pipes is under way.

The roof has been placed upon the huge cement "tub" recently, and within a few days the pipes will be connected and a reserve supply of several hundred thousand gallons of water will be on hand for use in any emergency that might arise where the reserve supply would be in demand.

The fire dangers will be greatly lessened as a result of the huge reservoir and its supply of water.

ELECTED DELEGATE NATIONAL CONVENTION

Mrs. Ed Pine has been notified that she was elected delegate from the Ohio Conference of the Woman's Home Missionary Society, to the National convention of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the M. E. church, to be held in Syracuse, N. Y., next fall.

The election was held after Mrs. Pine left the convention at Lancaster last week, and came as an entire surprise.

The election from a body of such size is a very high compliment to both Mrs. Pine and the local society.

AT THE EMPIRE

In the abstract, strong stories do not make strong plays, but with "Freckles" which will be the attraction at the Empire theater next Wednesday, November 19th, there is an exception; it has made a stronger play than it was a story, and it is just as gripping to the theater-goer as it was to the novel reader. It is a play for all classes. Freckles with his ready wit, his sweet songs and his battles with "Black Jack," and the rest of the "timber thieves," gives to the play a variety of incidents strong dramatically and strangely interesting.

JAIL BREAKER SURRENDERS SELF

Severance of All Relations Expected

Such Is the View Taken in Mexico City of the Negotiations Between the United States and Mexico.

THOUGHT PROBABLE O'SHAUGHNESSY WILL LEAVE FOR VERA CRUZ THIS EVENING

Women and Children of Business Men Ordered to Leave the Country--Huerta Defiantly Proceeds to Organize Congress in Face of United States Protests --President Wilson Unruffled Declares Huerta's Elimination Is Inevitable.

BULLETIN

By Associated Press.

Mexico City, Nov. 17.—The report was recived today that General Huerta intends to resign on the convening of Congress in regular session here Thursday. It was based on the alleged declaration of a Member of the Chamber of Deputies.

By Associated Press.

Mexico City, November 17.—An early severance of relations between the United States and Mexico regarded here as inevitable. None of the newspapers here printed either in English or Spanish published more than the briefest dispatches today touching the situation and no indication was given in these of the intentions of Washington towards Mexico. Whether the United States Embassy is to remain here or be immediately withdrawn appears to be a matter of which Nelson O'Shaughnessy himself is uncertain. The staff of the Embassy is ready to leave at a moment's notice and little surprise would be felt here, although much alarm would be caused, in case Mr. O'Shaughnessy and his establishment should take the evening train to Vera Cruz. There was considerable gossip in political circles today of further changes in the Mexican cabinet.

General Blanquet, minister of war, is said to have had a misunderstanding with President Huerta, which may cause him to leave his post. General Huerta is proceeding with his efforts to organize the new Congress regardless of notice given to him by John Lind that serious consequences would follow such a step. It was expected today that a further attempt would be made this afternoon to organize the senate as Saturday's efforts failed, owing to a lack of a quorum. The Chamber of Deputies was ordered to hold a session to receive the credentials of its members. Unless the United States finds a means to bring about alteration of the present plans, the first meeting of the House will occur Thursday.

By Associated Press.

Mexico City, Nov. 17.—Many American citizens who have reached here from smaller towns in the interior of Mexico declare that the situation has now reached its most acute stage.

A number of business concerns here, whose headquarters are abroad, very recently cablegrammed instructions to send the women and children of their employees out of the Federal capital. A man arrived here from Vera Cruz last night who claimed to be a messenger from John Lind, with what authority was not known, and who urged the immediate departure of all Americans, men and women and children.

All the Ministers of foreign countries are still here. Admiral Von Hintze, the German Minister, declared today that he believes there is no reason for anxiety. "A plan is being considered," he said, "by which armed intervention will most surely be avoided." Mr. O'Shaughnessy at 10.30 this morning said he had received no intimation from the Washington government that he was to close the American Embassy here. The American Charge d'Affaires appeared to have abandoned hope of any renewal of negotiations with the Mexican government and he said he simply was awaiting orders.

EXODUS BEGINS

By Associated Press.

Vera Cruz, November 17.—Eight American families arrived here from Mexico City today and reported that a general exodus was beginning. Many more are expected tonight and a still greater number tomorrow.

WILSON SEES NO SPECIAL CHANGE

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 17.—President Wilson does not regard the Mexican situation as having reached any such critical stage as to require the closing of the American Embassy. Discussing reports to that effect today he said that Charge O'Shaughnessy neither had been given his passports nor had been told to come back. While details as to persons had changed, yet the main circumstances remained substantially the same as when the President previously expressed a favorable view of the situation.

Summing up the status of affairs, the President indicated that while the personal attitude of General Huerta might have been changed, the circumstances upon which the American Government bases its convictions that Huerta's elimination is inevitable, have not changed at all. It was made plain at the White House that the resignation of Minister Aldape did not affect materially the American plan, as it was pointed out that no scheme that this Government might have could very well depend on the permanency of any member of the Huerta cabinet.

The President made it plain that the changes in the situation, though they appeared kaleidoscopic in detail had not impaired confidence here in the ultimate solution of the problem by peaceful means. Official denial was made at the White House that Pan-American mediation was contemplated and it was reiterated that no mediation of any kind had been offered to either faction. South American nations, it was stated, had been informed in the same way as European nations and have expressed in the main their desire to support the American policy. Secretary Bryan has ordered investigation of the executions at Juarez, but thus far has been unable to reconcile conflicting reports.

BREAK EXPECTED

Mexico City, Nov. 17.—It was learned on the highest authority that an open break with the United States is expected within 48 hours. Charge O'Shaughnessy is packing his trunks and may close the embassy and leave for Vera Cruz tonight.

EXECUTIONS MADE IN RETALIATION

By Associated Press.

Nogales, Sonora, November 17.—Retaliation for the execution of Constitutional prisoners by Mexican Federals was advanced today as a possible explanation of the action of General Villa at Juarez, in ordering the execution of at least two Federal prisoners yesterday. At General Carranza's headquarters it was denied that specific orders for the Juarez executions had been sent from here, but the same informant thought it possible that General Villa acted under the instruction given several months ago by General Carranza. That order it was stated, had directed that no Federals below a grade of Captain be executed. The negotiations between William B. Hale, agent of the Washington administration, and Carranza were believed here to have reached a crucial stage.

SOME SLAUGHTER

By Associated Press.

El Paso, Texas, November 17.—Eleven men are known to have been executed in Juarez since Francisco Pancho Villa and his rebel forces captured the city Saturday morning. The rebel officials admit the execution of that number. Americans who have frequented the city since its capture claim that 23 have been executed.

RAVING WOMEN ARE SENTENCED

By Associated Press.

London, England, November 17.—Two bands of what Arthur Hopkins, Police Magistrate, described as "raving women," appeared in the police courts of London today. They were charged with assault in connection with Saturday's outrage when hammers were thrown at Judge Lawrence and yesterday's disorder near the official residence of Premier Asquith. The four women charged with assaulting the judge were sentenced to terms of from one to two months at hard labor.

DEPUTY SHERIFF SHOT BY STRIKER

By Associated Press.

Calumet, Mich., November 17.—In a pistol fight between copper mine strikers and deputies at Quincy mine today, Harry Barker, a deputy sheriff, was shot through the abdomen. Two strikers received flesh wounds. The fight started when a parade of strikers on their way to Hancock to meet non-union men going to work. The parade stopped and deputies stationed along the road ordered the strikers to move on.

BROUGHT CHINKS IN FOR $1200 PER

By Associated Press.

Chicago, Ill., November 17.—Detention here of three Chinamen recently smuggled into this country, led to the arrest in Mobile, Alabama, today of two officers of the Norwegian steamship Alm, according to dispatches received here. Two of the Chinamen captured were sent to Mobile and identified the men. They told immigration officials they had paid $1200 each to be brought into the United States.

WANT SUFFRAGE A NATIONAL QUESTION

Also Ask for Special Mention of Their Cause in President's Annual Message to Congress and the Appointment of a Committee—Wilson Declares He Has the Matter Under Consideration.

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., November 17.—65 Suffragettes from New Jersey visited the executive offices at the White House today and though they had no previous engagement, were promptly received by President Wilson. "We came to ask you to make Suffrage a national question," Mrs. E. F. Peckert, head of the delegation, told the President. "And we would like you to include in your annual message support for the constitutional amendment now pending, to grant to women the right to vote. We would like also if you would use your efforts to have the committee on rules in the House appoint a woman's suffrage committee to push consideration of the amendment now pending in the Senate and on which we would like to see an early vote." "I was just talking today," said the President, "with some gentlemen from the House about the appointment of such a committee, and we have the matter under consideration."

MOST LOWER DEATH RATE

By Associated Press.

Charleston, W. Va., Nov. 17.—Governor H. D. Hatfield, aroused by the report of Chief of State Department of Mines Henry, in which it was shown one coal miner was killed each working day in West Virginia, has evolved a plan to lessen mine risks.

The Governor plans to have the mines of the state placed under three classifications; non-hazardous, hazardous and extra-hazardous. It is planned to have mine inspector spend more time in mines known to be hazardous. Operators who provide safeguards for employees will be allowed a lower rate of liability under the workman's compensation act, in case of accident.

CHINESE MAKE DEMONSTRATION

By Associated Press.

Panama, November 17.—The Chinese question assumed a serious turn in the Republic of Panama today. All the Chinese merchants, wholesale and retail in this city, in Colon and points in the interior, numbering more than 1500, acting according to a prearranged plan, closed their places of business, after posting notices that the doors had been shut for the purpose of taking an inventory. The demonstration was an effort to compel the government of Panama to recede from its program relative to the new registration law.

SO. PACIFIC YIELDS STRIKE IS ENDED

By Associated Press.

Houston, Texas, Nov. 17.—The strike of operating employees of the Southern Pacific lines of Texas and Louisiana was ended today when the railroad yielded to the demands of the men to meet a committee of the four unions concerned in the controversy. The men were ordered to resume work immediately.

$12,000,000 FLOOD LOSS IN 10 YEARS

By Associated Press.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 17.—According to a statement issued today by the flood commission appointed by the Pittsburg Chamber of Commerce, the loss from floods in Pittsburg during the past ten years was $12,000,000. The flood area within the city limits is computed at 1540 acres.

FIREMEN'S STRIKE IS THREATENING

By Associated Press.

Lawrence, Mass., Nov. 17.—About 450 union firemen in the textile mills in this city struck today in pursuance to their vote of yesterday to strike unless their demand for an 8-hour working day was granted. Should the strike be continued long, it is believed the mills, employing 35000 operatives, would be forced to close down, owing to the law which prohibits operation of a manufacturing establishment for more than one week without licensed firemen. The firemen have heretofore worked 12 hours a day, seven days a week.

FATALLY HURT

Mother and Daughter Struck at Crossing by Handcar.

Napoleon, O., Nov. 17.—Mrs. George W. Racey, 60, and daughter Mina, 22, were probably fatally injured when crossing the Detroit, Toledo & Ironton railroad track near here. Their buggy was struck by the roadmaster's handcar, following a freight train which had just passed. Mrs. Racey suffered injuries to her spine. A broken rib of Miss Racey penetrated a lung.

URGES REFORMS

Bank Superintendent Lattanner Reports to Governor Cox.

Columbus, O., Nov. 17.—Elimination of the overdraft, prohibition of interlocking boards of directors, greater responsibility on the part of directors for criminal transactions and recodification of the state banking laws are among the radical changes recommended for legislative action by State Banking Superintendent Lattanner in his annual report, which was presented to Governor Cox today. Superintendent Lattanner would make it a felony for anyone to give a check knowing that he has not adequate funds to meet it.

QUEST AUDITOR'S CLERKS

Columbus, O., Nov. 17.—Reduction in clerical allowances to county auditors is recommended in a general letter sent by the Ohio tax commission to every board of county commissioners in the state. Under the new taxation laws all work connected with the listing and assessing of property for taxation and making up the tax duplicate is transferred from the auditor to the local deputy tax commissioners.

TO AVOID RUPTURE WITH MEXICANS

Administration Is Exerting Itself to the Utmost.

HUERTA CONTINUES DEFIANT

Threat to Withdraw the American Embassy at the Mexican Capital Would Cause No Surprise at Washington — Relations With Southern Republic Admitted To Be Most Critical—Latest Developments.

Washington, Nov. 17.—The relations between the United States and the Huerta government in Mexico are more strained than at any time since President Wilson began consideration of the Mexican problem. The administration here is exerting itself to the utmost of its ability to avoid if possible the rupture with the Mexico City government which seems imminent unless Huerta can be broken.

So genuinely critical do administration officials consider the present aspects of the situation that they are unwilling to discuss the Mexican question in any way. Relations between the two governments are admittedly so delicate that efforts were made to discourage all speculation regarding developments in Washington and Mexico City.

Secretary Bryan was at the state department during the day, in communication with his representatives in Mexico. He was likewise in conference with President Wilson. The steps taken by the administration were decided on in the conferences at the White House and in the light of the dispatches received at the department of state. Messages were received from John Lind at Vera Cruz, Nelson O'Shaughnessy at Mexico City and William B. Hale at the Carranza headquarters at Nogales.

There is good reason to believe that an attempt will be made by President Wilson to force Huerta out by threats of a rupture. On this account instructions to O'Shaughnessy to notify President Huerta that if the congress is not dissolved and himself out of the presidency within a brief period, he will withdraw the American embassy from the Mexican capital, would occasion no surprise here. The purpose of such action, if finally adopted, will be to frighten Huerta into the conviction that if he persists in his course he will have the armed forces of the United States upon him.

The only cheerful note in the situation in Washington is the fact that none of the European powers are standing with Huerta.

HAVE HIGH TIME

Celebrate Their Victory by Indulging in Amusements.

Juarez, Mexico, Nov. 17.—The rebels of General Villa's army celebrated their capture of the biggest border city on the northern frontier. The church bells chimed merrily, but few of the victors hesitated as they passed the ancient mission longer than to cross themselves or kick the corpse of a late federal soldier. They only sauntered to the bull ring, the fiesta plaza or the keno hall.

Throughout Saturday, rifles and pistols barked at short intervals and late federal defenders of the border town crumpled up, one by one, in little heaps, while the present rebel possessors of the border port walked stoically away to a nearby cantina for refreshment and to reload or hunt anew for some man they bore a grudge.

So unprepared for battle were the 400 federal defenders that Villa's troops actually reached the center of the town before a single shot was fired. It is estimated that 40 persons were killed in the fighting. The rebels lost five men, the federal dead is estimated at 30 and four or five non-combatants were killed.

ALDAPE LIFTED OUT OF HIS JOB

Mexican Minister of Interior Tenders His Resignation.

Mexico City, Nov. 17.—Manuel Garza Aldape, minister of the interior, at the request of President Huerta has presented his resignation. The reason for his retirement is not known, but it is believed to have been due to activity of Senator Aldape in endeavoring to bring about compliance with Huerta with the demands of Washington to relinquish the presidency. The minister had conferred previously with Nelson O'Shaughnessy, the American charge d'affaires, on the subject of reopening negotiations with John Lind, President Wilson's personal representative, looking to a settlement of the trouble between Mexico and the United States.

Senator Aldape was the last remaining cabinet officer appointed by agreement between President Huerta and General Felix Diaz at the close of the 10 days' battle in the capital in February. The agreement was signed in the American embassy.

Wilmington, Del., Nov. 17.—Governor Charles R. Miller of this state came out strongly in support of the whipping post. In response to newspaper articles and letters he has received as a result of the agitation caused by the resolution offered in congress by Representative Evans of Montana, the governor said: "The courts and other authorities of Delaware will administer the internal affairs of the commonwealth regardless of any attempted interference by a member of congress or of persons in other states who are ignorant of conditions here." The executive stated he had received abusive letters demanding that he suspend the whipping post law.

Race Segregation in Public Office Causes Investigation

By Associated Press.

New York, Nov. 17.—The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People today made public the report of a special agent sent to Washington to investigate the segregation of white and colored employees in government departments. The investigation was made as the result of many complaints and inquiries. The association has twenty branches throughout the country. Moorefield Storey, of Boston, is president; Oswald G. Villard, of New York is chairman of the board of directors which includes, among others, Miss Jane Addams and Miss Lillian D. Wald.

"The effect of segregation," says the report, "is startling. Competition has been eliminated. Those segregated are regarded almost as lepers and get what no one else wants. Segregation in work has been so far without official orders. Generally the excuse is a readjustment of work to increase efficiency."

Taking up individual departments, the report says:

"In the Miscellaneous and Engraving Division of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, workers have been paired according to race. In the Dead Letter Office of the Post Office Department colored employees have been segregated back of a row of lockers in a corner of the room. In fact, in this department, segregation practically amounts to elimination. In the Treasury building colored clerks have not yet been segregated, but it seems to be understood that as many as possible are to be segregated in the Registry Division."

"In the office of the Auditor for the Post office segregation seems to have been most skillfully worked out. In one room colored men operate what is known as the 'gang punch' and in another room, the force working at the 'assorting machines' is entirely colored."

"In the Bureau of Engraving and Printing the lunch room assigned to the colored women is unsanitary. In the Post Office Department there is no lunch room at all for colored help. In the office of the Auditor for the

BRIDGE AND ROAD WORK INTROSS

The work of putting the new block floor in the Main street river bridge will begin in about a week or ten days and the contractor is of the opinion that it will take two or three weeks to complete the same. A notice will be posted on the bridge about a week prior to the bridge being closed so that people in this locality will have an opportunity to do any immediate heavy hauling.

While the bridge is closed traffic will be turned around the road to Kilgore bridge at Geo. Miller's place, and around the Narrows Road and in Bridge street. The Narrows Road, which was badly damaged by the flood, is being repaired some so traffic will be possible over it.

The new mile of paved road on the Clarksburg pike, the brick ter which was condemned, will necessarily have to be closed for the winter. The curbing that has been set has been bermed and traffic will be again opened up over the old roadbed, instead of the canal bank.

The North Fork bridge, in Feltot township, has been started and a new steel structure will soon be in place of the old wooden structure. The county has offered the old bridge lumber and timbers for sale, but so far has received no bid on the same.

The new bridge at Bainbridge will be completed within about a week or ten days. The same is a two span steel bridge with block flooring and meets with the approval of the entire community.

The new steel bridge at West Junction has also been shipped and reached the site, but work on the same has not yet commenced.—Chillicothe News.

Having the Punch

This is essentially a day and a time when the successful man and the successful business must "have the punch."

It has only been in recent years that the phrase "have the punch" has been used in connection with any other business or profession, if you please, than that of prize fighting. The favorite expression used by the old-time followers of pugilism in describing the successful fighter was "he had the punch." The boxer or the fighter to climb from the obscurity of a participant in the preliminary matches must "have the punch."

During the last decade people having been compelled to go at such a rapid pace to keep up with the demands of the present day life that nothing more fitly describes that essential to success in almost every walk of life in these times than the old prize ring phrase.

People haven't the time nor the inclination these days to read long accounts of important happenings—there are too many things happening and too much to read about. They haven't time to figure out the hidden purpose in magazine or newspaper articles. They demand "the punch" and the news-writers are all instructed nowadays to handle only that matter which can be presented to the public with a punch. Matter which does not possess the punch is not worth while and is given no place on the crowded wires.

The political orator who dealt in words, in phrase, nicely rounded sentences and "glittering generalities" has passed off the stage. The political speaker these days must have something definite to say, know how to say it and deliver his message with the demanded punch or he does his cause harm. If he hasn't the punch he is a failure.

The attorney and the advocate these days, whether addressing court or jury casts aside all attempts at oratory and goes straight to the root of the case. In short, terse sentences, if he is a success, he presents his facts very like the old time prize fighter drove his jolts and swings to the body of his opponent. He too, must have the punch.

The merchant in his advertisements must make his story short and attractive if he expects buyers to come. He must have the punch in his business and in his advertising.

The rapid development of the country, the growth of business and the consequent increase in competition in all professions and businesses has made the man who drifts to success without especial effort on his own part, an impossibility nowadays.

Circumstances no longer make a man. He must shape circumstances to meet his own ends. The contest of wits and energies is so real and so marked that it is really a fight for existence.

Why then, is not the old phrase of fight followers really applicable now as descriptive of the qualities which the champions in business must possess.

Judging from the general use which is made of the old phrase which the followers of the squared circle game coined, the majority of people think it about fits existing condition.

If men who feel themselves "going back" just a little would go into training and find out whether they still possess the punch they might, some of them, with profit to themselves, quit drifting and worrying, and either sell out and retire or develop the necessary punch.

There Never Was a Time That the Stage Was Better Than It Is Today

By BRANDER MATTHEWS, Academic Critic and Student of the Drama

JUST at present we hear some talk about the DECADENCE OF THE DRAMA, some opinion expressed that the drama is as bad as it can be. But these views are voiced, I think, largely by those who FAIL TO CONSIDER THE STAGE AS A WHOLE and really fix their attention on one or two plays unwisely exploited.

THERE CAN BE NO QUESTION THAT THE STAGE TODAY IS FAR BETTER THAN AT ANY PREVIOUS PERIOD, CERTAINLY OF THE UNITED STATES.

Fifty years ago the drama of the English language was simply contemptible. There was at that time a sharp division between literature and the drama. So bad were conditions then that respectable people were DRIVEN AWAY FROM THE THEATER except when they went to see a great actor—Booth, Kean, Cushman, for example. In those days respectable and discriminating people never went to the theater to see pictures of contemporary life, for such pictures were not to be found on the stage. For pictures true to contemporary life people read novels.

What is particularly hopeful about the playwrights of today is that they are not trying to be literary. They are TRYING TO BE INTERESTING, and most of them are trying to be TRUTHFUL. By "literary truth" I do not mean portrayal of the external facts of life, but fidelity to the inner life, and it is this inner life that the younger men are trying to get. Personally I think the drama will be MORE IMPORTANT THAN PROSE FICTION during the next twenty-five years.

Poetry For Today

OLD BREAKFAST JOYS.

How dear to my heart are the fond recollections
Of breakfasts I ate as a boy!—
The buskewheat, the sirup, the home-ly confections
That my childish tastes would employ;
The coffee, with sugar and cream served so sweetly,
"The rich flavored strawberry jell,"
And the eggs, white and golden, all spread out so neatly,
Beside of the freshly sliced ham.

No breakfasts have ever been quite like the old ones
I ate as a boy on the farm—
A stranger, I've sat where the cakes have been cold ones,
The jam to be viewed with alarm.
Were I real poet I'd tune up my measures
So sing of those comforts long past;
To give rhythmic sway to the mem'ry of pleasures
Too dear and too perfect to last.

Yet, why stir regret with so much as a chirrup
For blessings we must henceforth lack?
Those buckwheats are vanished, the old maple sirup
Is sweetness that will not come back;
While the ham that of old was a morsel to cherish,
For which e'en a princeling might beg,
Would afford us a joy all too quickly to perish
Allied with the seven-cent egg!

SECRET DONOR

Cornell University Medical School Receives More Than Four Millions.

Ithaca, N. Y., Nov. 17.—An anonymous gift of $4,350,000 to the Cornell university medical school in New York city was announced by President Jacob Gould Schurman of Cornell university. Dr. Schurman said he was not at liberty to disclose the name of the donor. On account of his magnificent generosity to the Cornell medical school in the past, however, it is generally believed that the man who made this gift to the medical school is Colonel Iver Payne of New York city. The gift was actually made to President Schurman in New York city last Friday. The sum will insure the medical school a yearly income of about $200,000. None of the money is to be used for buildings, but will be devoted to paying the annual running expenses of the college.

INTERESTING BITS OF NEWS

(By John E. M. Kerr.)

Hong Kong, one of the greatest ports of the world, saw but one sailing ship last year; even the Chinese junks are being driven out of commission by the competition of power driven vessels. Some 30 years ago, says the American Consul at Hong Kong, one-fourth of the total entries of ships were sailing vessels.

Vincent Astor, the present head of the Astor family, has just closed a profitable transaction for his estate, in a manner that indicates his inheritance of the thrift of his ancestors. He leased a plot of ground on 33rd street, opposite the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, for 80 years, at a rental of $121,250 a year, the total rent that the estate will receive from the transaction thus approximating $10,000,000.

Investments by the U. S. for labor and money in the Panama Canal would have been placed to greater service to the American people if it had been expended on the roads of the Republic, is the sense of the National Grange now in convention at Manchester, N. H. The building of the canal is a federal project of which all Americans are proud, yet the same amount of labor and money spent on the highways at home would create benefits nearer and more important to all the people. Employment of state prisoners in preparing road material and also in the actual construction work was advocated whenever possible.

The use of oil as a binder on roads that are traveled by motor vehicles is more and more prevalent in the East, for it really serves its purpose, says a report of the Massachusetts Highway Commission. This report shows pictures of highways treated by bituminous binder and many months after its application, and it still appears in perfect condition. Macadam that is not treated in this way goes to pieces very fast. A piece of road built in the fall of 1911 had to be repaired at a cost of $1400 a mile by July of the next year. The oil treatment costs all the way from $500 to $1200 a mile.

The Pennsylvania and other leading railroads have given notice that the custom of charging but half rates for coal to hospital and charitable organizations will be discontinued. The change is made in order to meet the requirements of new laws. About 17,000,000 cold storage eggs in Pittsburg and millions in other Pennsylvania cities, must be placed in markets within a few days, according to the new storage act. Storage eggs must be stamped such, causing them to sell down to 14 cents below market for strictly fresh. Many merchants have already been indicted for not complying with the new law. With Siberian and New Zealand creamery butter offered to Pittsburg dealers at 23 cents a pound net, delivered, beginning January 1st and notice to storage interests that all April eggs must come out of storage, the market for storage products is demoralized.

It is the hope and desire of the postmaster general that the 20 pound provision in the rates in the first two parcel post zones, might be extended so as to cover all the zones and that the weight of the package might gradually be brought up to 100 pounds. The system will be expanded and rates lowered, zones expanded and weights of parcels increased just as rapidly as business done will justify. It is thus for the people, patrons of the parcel post, to determine by their use of this government project, how soon these changes are to be brought about. The parcel post has thus far, more than paid its way.

They will give nine of Shakespeare's plays some of the plays that have not been seen in Columbus for years, because they have not suited the personalities of the stars who "go in" for Shakespeare today. This American tour has been widely discussed and much heralded, and in many respects it is the most eventful Shakespearean tour ever undertaken by an English organization.

This company is from the Memorial Theatre at Stratford-upon-Avon, the town of Shakespeare's birth and Mr. Benson has been the director of that theatre for more than twenty-five years and it has become one of the most talked of institutions in England—and is visited by thousands of foreign travelers every season. Practically all the famous actors and actresses in England have been members of this company.

The repertoire for Columbus is as follows: Monday, "The Merchant of Venice;" Tuesday, "King Richard the Second;" Wednesday matinee, "Much Ado About Nothing;" Wednesday evening, "The Taming of the Shrew;" Thanksgiving matinee, "Twelfth Night;" Thanksgiving night "King Henry the Fourth;" Friday evening "The Merry Wives of Windsor;" Saturday matinee, "As You Like It;" Saturday evening, "Hamlet."

which resulted in the arrest of Gus Smith, of northern Fayette, on a charge of intoxication and wielding a knife with intent to wound, and the young man's trial will take place in police court Wednesday of this week.

Smith, it seems, had come to this city early Saturday morning, and in company with some companions, went to Columbus, and upon his return here in the evening, was under the influence of liquor.

He appeared at the skating rink where Manager Nelson, in response to complaints made regarding the young man's conduct, ordered him from the place and closed the rear door, but by the time he reached the front part of the building, Smith is said to have appeared there, armed with a knife, with which he threatened use on Manager Nelson, and made at him.

Nelson backed into the office in search of a weapon with which to defend himself. The approach of the police caused the young man to desist and leave the place, and he was arrested shortly afterward and escorted to the Mayor's office, where he was searched, and from thence he was taken to the county jail, making no resistance until he was inside the corridor and beheld the jail door open to receive him.

It was then he started to resist but was hurriedly locked up. Then the work of placing him in a cell and locking him in was taken up, but the man commenced struggling and for nearly 30 minutes Chief McCoy and Sheriff Nelson worked to lock him in the cell.

Smith fought and scratched and tried to bite the officers, holding to the bars of the cell and doing everything in his power to prevent them from locking him in a cell.

Officers Bell and Baughn were summoned, and with their assistance he was finally landed in the cell, cursing and shouting at the officers. It was with difficulty that the officers restrained themselves from using more drastic means for conquering the man.

Sunday morning friends came to his rescue and furnished cash bail for his appearance Wednesday.

I. O. O. F. HONORED IN SPECIAL SERVICES

The I. O. O. F. and Daughters of Rebekah were guests of honor at the Presbyterian church Sunday night, when special services in compliment to the order were held.

A hundred and fifty Odd Fellows and Daughters marched into the church and were seated in a body in the center of the auditorium.

Rev. Wm. Boynton Gage delivered a masterly sermon to the order, laying stress upon the possibilities for good in its great numbers and making a strong arraignment of the lack of fidelity to lodge pledges as is often found in different lodges.

The sterling principles of the lodge, its splendid charity and brotherhood, when fulfilled as in its pledges, was extolled with fervid eloquence.

The choir furnished special music, under the direction of Mrs. Robinson, choirster, Mrs. Davis organist. Mr. L. L. Bowman, whose rarely beautiful baritone is a decided acquisition to Washington's musical circles, sang the anthem solos.

New Telephone Exchange With Underground Wires

This is What Many See in Special Meeting of Council Called to Consider Permit to Give the Washington Home Telephone Company Right to Place Conduit in Alley Near Exchange and for a General Permit to Lay Conduits.

A special session of the City Council has been called for tonight for the purpose of granting the Washington Home Telephone company a permit to lay a conduit in the alley near the exchange, and a franchise will probably be asked of council to lay conduits throughout the business part of the city, or wherever conditions warrant it.

Many view this move as one toward the installation of a new exchange in this city, and bringing the antiquated equipment of the company up to a standard of efficiency never before attempted by the company in this city.

Those closely associated with the company state that a new system here is not improbable, but also state that so far nothing definite has been promised, although something definite may develop within a short time.

It is stated that while a permit is asked for laying the half square of conduit, that a general permit will be asked for, which amounts to a franchise for using the streets and alleys for placing the wires underground, thus ridding the business part of town of the unsightly poles and wires.

MISS FLORENCE USTICK, SOCIETY EDITOR

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Barrere Monday afternoon, when their only daughter, Alma, was united in marriage to Mr. Frederick E. Steenrod, of Detroit, Mich.

The wedding was a quiet affair, only the immediate friends of the family being present to witness the impressive ring ceremony performed by Rev. F. E. Ross, of Grace M. E. church.

The attractive bride was stunning in a grey traveling suit, with hat of grey velvet and melrose plumes, corsage bouquet of American beauty roses.

The rooms were artistically embellished with American Beauty roses, palms and greenery.

The young couple left immediately for their new home in Detroit, Mich., where Mr. Steenrod is actively engaged in business.

The bride, a charming girl, has a host of friends in Washington who sincerely regret to lose her, but are extending all good wishes for future success and happiness to the young couple.

Mr. Ben Barrere and family of Wilmington were here to attend the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Barrere entertained at noon with a family dinner.

Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Snyder are anticipating their departure for Florida on the 25th of this month by entertaining with two elaborate dinners at the Boyd home on East street.

JIM'S EYES ARE OPENED ON WORK OF RUNNING A Y. M. C. A.

Gets Some Inside Figures Which Cause Him to "See Things" in Different Light, and He Is Greatly Pleased With Manner in Which Business End of the Institution is Handled.

Now a feller on the outside has an idea that a Y. M. C. A. is an organization where a few fellers own it, and all the profits goes into somebody's pockets and I wanted to find out a few things I have heard kicks about and so in I sauntered for information. The secretary says come in the office, and you shall have all the information you want, an institution which belongs to a town always welcomes complete and thoro investigation. "Think of it. Here I've been a-knocking and kicking, didn't have the straight of anything, but I was just like a good many others I know, just wanted to knock, and didn't care about getting things straight.

Now here's what I found out (and lots more too hard for poor me to get onto):

The Y. M. C. A. is a pretty big thing. Over $100,000,000 of property in the U. S., about a million members, and over 3000 men employed running this business. Every place that has a Y. M. C. A. must have members, and then the members hold a meeting and elect the men who act as trustees. The trustees in turn organize and elect a president, vice president, secretary and treasurer, and then the president appoints a bunch of committees, which are members of course, to look after the social, physical, educational, religious and boys' work. Now there is the women's committee, they are appointed by the president, and each one of these committees has to do certain stunts. I was slow in "gettin' on", but do you catch the idea—getting that bunch to work; my goodness! almost a hundred working, for what, to help the other fellows and just such chaps as me and they're really workin' on me and helping me I know, for I'm beginning to feel like nothing, and that's a good sign.

Well sir, there is some business about that institution too. It cost about $6000 to run the place last year. I says what do you fellows spend all that money for. Well, says the secretary, look here, salaries, laundry, for heat, light and water alone, $1000; then supplies, printing, furniture and repairs, etc. And do you know, when I went over everything, I was surprised how they could do so much for so little. Then I says, now about your receipts. Well says he, we received $3,435.95 from membership fees last year, $1,212.99 from rents of bed rooms, then some from the various departments, from the High school for use of class rooms, some from subscriptions, and to make ends meet it was necessary to borrow a little. Well I discovered all anybody was a-gettin' out of running the place was a bunch of worry to make ends meet.

I saw a book there in the office which tells the number attending this thing and that thing, and it said "statistical report." That tells what has been done, that they can get figures for. I'm going to look that thru and tell you what I saw, but I know they can't make a record of the good they've done me, and they can't make a record of cheering a lost soul or makin' a new man out of a run-down plug, but they have some figures we want to see.

Yours,

"JIM"

UNCLE SAM BEGINS A SWEEPING PROBE

Practices of Anthracite Roads
To Get An Airing.

LAW VIOLATIONS SUSPECTED

Interstate Commerce Commission to Determine Whether Railroads Have Observed the Spirit of the Commodities Clause Decision, Which Held That Roads Could Not Transport Goods Produced by Themselves.

Philadelphia, Nov. 17.—The interstate commerce commission began here today a sweeping investigation into the rates and practices of the anthracite roads.

The inquiry is being undertaken with a view to determining whether there have been any violations by the carriers of the interstate commerce laws in connection with the transportation of coal, including the question as to whether the roads have observed the spirit of the recent "commodities clause" decision, which held that railroads could not transport commodities produced by themselves—in this case coal.

The question of the reasonableness of the present freight rates on coal and whether the carriers discriminate against independent shippers will comprise an important part of the inquiry. This will involve an investigation into the relations between the roads and whether, in connection with possible discriminations, any concerted policy exists among them.

Among the railroads chiefly concerned are the Reading; the Central Railroad of New Jersey; the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western; the Lehigh Valley; the Pennsylvania; the Erie, and the New York, Ontario & Western. For the last few weeks investigators for the commission have been engaged in examining the records and correspondence of these roads, and a mass of evidence of this nature will be introduced. High officials of the roads have been called to testify as well as officials of independent coal companies. The inquiry is expected to last at least three weeks.

Commissioner John H. Marble will preside, and S. H. Smith and J. I. Hickey, attorneys for the commission, will conduct the examination.

The railroads will be represented by a legal committee consisting of Walker D. Hines of New York, a prominent railroad lawyer; Jackson E. Reynolds, attorney for the Central Railroad of New Jersey, and Herbert A. Taylor of the Erie.

The program of the investigation calls for an inquiry first into the practices of the roads and their allied coal companies in the production, shipment and sale of coal, and then into rates. Stock control of selling and producing companies by the carriers or by interests which control the carriers will be thoroughly gone into. It is expected, with a view to determining whether these alliances are subversive of the spirit of the commodities clause decision.

Progressive Bills Launched.

The Progressive anti-trust program, the main feature of the third party's legislative plans for the next session, is outlined in three bills which Representative Murdock of Kansas, Progressive leader of the house, introduced in congress today. They embody proposals to create an interstate trade commission to prohibit unfair competition and to suppress monopolies.

Mr. Murdock said that his bills, which he called the Progressive trust triplets, would solve the whole trust problem, would wipe out monopoly and create a trade commission that would relieve the courts of administrative function in business regulations and bring quick, adequate relief to the small business man.

The proposed commission would have seven members serving seven-year terms at $10,000 a year each. The commission's jurisdiction would be limited to corporations and business combinations having more than $3,000,000 gross annual receipts from business in the United States. It would have plenary power to get complete information, to criticize and make public overcapitalization, unfair competition, misrepresentation or oppressive use of credits and to assist the courts in enforcing decrees of dissolution.

Additional Information For Hunters and Trappers

The following information is issued by the State Fish and Game Commission, for the benefit of all who hunt or trap:

The use of a dog is not prohibited in hunting rabbits. In fact these animals may be hunted at any time, except Sundays, and in almost any manner, if the trespass laws are observed and neither a gun nor ferret are connected with such operations.

The words, "With Gun Only" appearing on the back of hunters' licenses, is merely intended to emphasize the fact that rabbits may be killed with a gun during the open season, November 15th to December 4th. A dog may be used while hunting with a gun.

A license is not required in trapping for fur bearing animals if a gun is not associated with the work. The law provides that hunters must have written permission from the owners of premises before entering thereon for the purpose of hunting. However, it is not probable that prosecution would follow if the land owner should state that the hunting was being done with his verbal permission or invitation, and if all other laws relating to hunting were being fully observed.

Land owners and persons having their permission may kill certain fur bearing animals when they are found injuring property. Pelts of animals killed under authority of this law may be had in possession and sold, except in the case of skunks. It should be kept in mind, however, that this law was designed for the sole purpose of enabling land owners to protect themselves against such animals when they are actually injuring property.

President Wilson Confers With Leaders in Congress.

NEWLANDS TO HAVE CHARGE

Latter Favors Appointment of a Trade Commission of Three With Powers Over Corporations Engaged in Interstate Commerce — Cummins and LaFollette Also to Introduce Measures Bearing On Trust Question.

Washington, Nov. 17.—With tariff legislation accomplished and the currency bill in a fair way to become a law before March next, President Wilson is giving considerable thought to the third number in his legislative program—the trust question. The president already has conferred with several leaders in congress, who will have charge of this legislation.

Senator Newlands of Nevada, chairman of the interstate commerce commission of the senate, will have charge of trust legislation in the senate. A number of bills are pending before the committee at this time. Mr. Newlands already has drawn a bill expressing his individual ideas, which authorizes the appointment of a trade commission of three, with powers over corporations engaged in interstate commerce, similar to the powers now exercised by the interstate commerce commission over transportation.

Sensors and representatives who have talked to the president say they have found him in a receptive mood, but disposed to hold up the New Jersey anti-trust laws, known colloquially as "the seven sisters," as models of federal legislation.

Senator Cummins also has prepared a bill which amends the Sherman anti-trust law and provides for a trade commission. Senator LaFollette, too, has a bill which makes no mention of a trade commission, but proposes several additional sections to the Sherman act. Senators Bristow and Williams also have bills pending before the senate committee on interstate commerce.

It is likely that the anti-trust legislation of the administration will take the same course the tariff and currency have taken. It is expected that the president will deal with the subject in his annual message to congress early in December and that his recommendations will embrace the underlying ideas of the New Jersey statutes regulating trusts that were passed in his administration as governor.

JEFFERSON TOWNSHIP YOUTH HEADS FAYETTE CONTESTANTS

Willard Kirk Leads Fayette Corn Boys With 111.8 Bushels Grown Upon One Acre.

ANOTHER LAD GROWS 102.8 BUSHEL TO ACRE

Others Follow Closely With More Than 95 Bushels and a Few Have Not Filed Report of Their Acre of Corn—Some Suffer Bad Luck and Fall Short of Goal, While One Lad Made a Mistake in Measuring His "Acre" of Corn.

A large number of the Fayette county corn boys have filed their reports of the amount of corn raised in the Free Trip to Washington contest, which is conducted under the auspices of the State Agricultural board of which Mr. A. P. Sandles is president.

The reports so far indicate that Willard Kirk, from Jefferson township, is ahead by several bushels in this county, and that he will hustle many others throughout the state to beat his record of 111.8 bushels raised upon one acre in Fayette county.

Judges were appointed to husk and weigh the corn and certify to the correct weight of the corn grown by the hustling young farmers.

Another Jefferson township lad is second in the contest in this county, Howard C. Vannorsdall, growing 102.8 bushels upon one acre, and followed closely by Warner M. Straley, of the same township, who raised 97.7 bushels.

Others in that township and the amount grown are: Carl E. Miller, 97.5; Harry L. Helronimus, 96.6 bushels; Russell L. Cook, 94.3 bushels; Otis Straley, 91.7 bushels; Harold Zimmerman, 86.9 bushels; Willie Torbett, 78.9 bushels.

Reports from other townships show the following amount of corn raised by the various contestants: Harold Barnes, Paint township, 87.6 bushels; Albert Burris, Concord township, 80.4 bushels; Owen B. Riley, Union township, 81.4 bushels; Edwin Bowyer, Concord township, 71.9 bushels; Otis Stuckey, Union township, 62.7 bushels; Jennings Bland, Paint twp., 47.5 bushels.

A few other reports are expected within the next day or two, but none are expected that will exceed the hustling youngsters from Jefferson township.

Several of the lads entered in the contest suffered bad luck with their sample acres, the dry weather affecting many plots, while hail storms, wind storms, and heavy rain damaged that of others.

One lad, Harold Zimmerman, discovered that he had made a mistake in the measuring of his acre of ground, and that instead of a full acre he was short enough ground to bring the yield up considerably more than the 80.9 bushels grown by him.

Out of the large number of contestants, several will be sent to Washington when the Corn Boys' Special train leaves in December. One free trip was offered by Congressman J. D. Post, for the largest amount grown in the district; one has been offered by the Washington Savings bank for the best yield in Fayette county, and several township prizes have been offered.

One Pickaway county lad, Dwight Redtor, has produced 117.846 bushels, and so far is ahead in this congressional district, and may win the trip offered by Mr. Post.

Indications are that the number who will take part in the contest next year will be double the number entered in the contest this year, and it is believed that plans will be made for sending more of the enterprising youngsters and farm girls.

NEW CROSSOVER IS LAID TODAY

A new cross-over was placed in position today on West Court street where the Pennsylvania railroad crosses the D. T. & I. tracks.

The old cross-over has been in bad condition for some time, and had become dangerous to both roads, and particularly the Pennsylvania company.

"RUSSELLISM AND THE MILLENIAL DAWN"

Rev. F. E. Ross, pastor of Grace church, interested a large audience last night in a masterly lecture on "Russellism and the Millennial Dawn" which was the third of a series of fine lectures on the general theme of "What Do You Believe?"

Rev. Ross remarks received the closest attention for nearly an hour and a half and showed a very comprehensive study of the subject.

On next Sunday night Rev. Ross will lecture upon "Christian Science, Its Truth and Error," at which time a very large congregation is expected to be in attendance. Great interest has been shown in these able lectures by Rev. Ross and he has handled all of the subjects in a most interesting and convincing way. The culmination will come on Sunday night, November 30, when Rev. Ross addresses the congregation on the weighty subject, "Do We Need a New Religion?"

ACCUSES HUSBAND OF EXTREME CRUELTY

In a petition for divorce, filed in Probate court through Attorney J. T. Oatneal, Margaret Johnson asks divorce and alimony from Claude Johnson.

The couple, according to the petition were married in this city on the 4th day of January, 1907.

The plaintiff charges her husband with extreme cruelty, alleging that he has cursed and abused her, and on October 21, 1913, struck her, repeatedly, knocking her down and injuring her. She also charges him with tearing her clothes and breaking a sewing machine to pieces.

Divorce, alimony and an injunction prohibiting the defendant from interfering with her, is what the petitioner asks.

BOY TELLS OF LOCAL ROBBERY

Chief McCoy has received word from Cincinnati stating that a boy held for investigation had confessed that he was with a crook who had entered a local dental office in this city a few months ago, and got away with a quantity of gold.

Chief McCoy communicated with the Cincinnati authorities, stating that the office of Dr. C. W. Sadders was burglarized in this city last July and the man will probably be apprehended.

MANY FREIGHTS HANDLE BUSINESS

The D. T. & I. railroad is handling more business than at any time for months, and from Sunday noon until Monday noon eleven through freight trains had passed through this city.

The increase in business is due in part to more motive power for handling the trains.

Prospects for a continuance of the increased business are bright.

PIONEER DEAD

Mrs. Levina E. Fichtorn, one of the pioneer residents of Jamestown, died suddenly at her home in that town recently, at the age of 83 years.

Funeral services were held at the residence in Jamestown Monday afternoon and interment made in the Jamestown cemetery.

She leaves a number of relatives in this county.

SECRETLY MARRIED

Friends and relatives are learning with much surprise that Mrs. Ollie Blackburn and Mr. Ed Wilt, the bridge contractor, were secretly married in Newport, Ky., on June 17th.

The secret of the wedding has just leaked out and Mr. and Mrs. Wilt are receiving the best wishes of their friends. They will go at once to housekeeping on Eas. Tempic street.

WOMEN MEET TONIGHT

The women who expect to be members of the new physical culture class will meet tonight at 8 o'clock. The meeting will be in the Y. M. C. A. class rooms. The new High school gymnasium will probably be used by the new class.

FOR INTOXICATION

Chas. Hecker, a bricklayer, was picked up by the police Sunday night, and locked in the county jail to answer to a charge of intoxication.

NEW RESERVOIR NEARLY COMPLETED

Within a short time the big reservoir at the Washington water works will be ready for use, as the structure is virtually completed and the work of laying the pipes is under way.

The roof has been placed upon the huge cement "tub" recently, and within a few days the pipes will be connected and a reserve supply of several hundred thousand gallons of water will be on hand for use in any emergency that might arise where the reserve supply would be in demand.

The fire dangers will be greatly lessened as a result of the huge reservoir and its supply of water.

ELECTED DELEGATE NATIONAL CONVENTION

Mrs. Ed Pine has been notified that she was elected delegate from the Ohio Conference of the Woman's Home Missionary Society, to the National convention of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the M. E. church, to be held in Syracuse, N. Y., next fall.

The election was held after Mrs. Pine left the convention at Lancaster last week, and came as an entire surprise.

The election from a body of such size is a very high compliment to both Mrs. Pine and the local society.

AT THE EMPIRE

In the abstract, strong stories do not make strong plays, but with "Freckles" which will be the attraction at the Empire theater next Wednesday, November 19th, there is an exception; it has made a stronger play than it was a story, and it is just as gripping to the theater-goer as it was to the novel reader. It is a play for all classes. Freckles with his ready wit, his sweet songs and his battles with "Black Jack," and the rest of the "timber thieves," gives to the play a variety of incidents strong dramatically and strangely interesting.

JAIL BREAKER SURRENDERS SELF

William, or "John" Higgins, one of the men who recently broke jail in Jackson, has surrendered himself to the Ironton police and is back in the Jackson jail awaiting trial.

The man claims that Miller, the murderer, who escaped at the same time, is in West Virginia. He said he and Miller had engaged in a fight before separating.

LEASE IS CLOSED FOR ATHLETIC PARK

At a recent meeting of the Washington Athletic Baseball club, the Old Fair grounds, or Athletic park, as it has become popularly known, was leased for the baseball season next year.

Canned Goods.

Everyone uses these to some extent. There is not an item of canned goods on which you cannot save money by buying in quantity.

$1.25 per doz. cans or 65c half doz. cans

The saving of 25c per dozen is quite an item. This saving applies not only to canned corn but to all
